

Lust hases

Alexandra Bain is the co-director of a new online homewares boutique, New Beach Road (newbeachroad.com). Aiming to reflect a style unique to Sydney harbourside suburbs, the store sells a range of items including ottomans, bedheads and cushions. Alexandra and Natalie Manning also run

Property Lipstick, offering decorating and design advice with the aim of creating beautiful spaces. Alexandra describes her design style as quite classic but she does like to mix in contemporary pieces.

Seated feat I have always coveted this butterfly chair by Pierre Paulin for its refinement and sculptural qualities.

It's delicate yet strong and complex yet simple.

Artifort butterfly chair by Pierre Paulin (1963), $2960, from Living Edge, livingedge.com.au

Art smart I discovered Graham Kuo's work last year at Janet Clayton Gallery and I was captivated by the eastern calligraphic references. Tomorrow's Dream oil and acrylic on canvas (101cm x 76cm), $6000, grahamkuo.com

Going green Green smoothies are a part of my everyday routine for health and wellbeing. This gadget is so powerful, it produces silky smooth drinks, soups and even almond milk that other blenders just can't handle. Vitamix total nutrition centre, $995, from Vitamix, vitamix.com.au